4. REPORTS AND INFORMATION:

- 4-A BOARD CHAIR: No reports presented
- 4-B BOARD MEMBERS: Lisa Gerving shared information regarding the K-6 Boys and Girls Basketball Camp. It will be held July 21-22-23, 2014, at the Glen Ullin gym from 5:30-7:00 p.m. for one camp, and 7:00-9:00 p.m. for the 2nd camp. The coaches would be Bray Fox, Shelly Christensen, Kelly Hochhalter and possibly Paul Saylor.
- 4-C GUESTS: No reports presented
- 4-D ELEMENTARY PRINCIPAL: Mrs. O'Donnell was absent. In her place, Mr. Barry reported that at the present time there are only 6 students signed up for Summer School and that 12 are needed to hold summer classes; however, more students may sign up by the time summer school begins.
- 4-E SECONDARY PRINCIPAL: Mr. Remboldt was absent. Sandy Gerving was asked if she would hand out the diplomas for graduation as the students' names are called. Sandy did agree to do so.
- 4-F SUPERINTENDENT: Mr. Barry reported that a donation of $500 was received from West River Telecom to be applied toward the new playground. Donation request letters were mailed several weeks ago and this was our first response.

The 2014-15 school year for all grades will begin at 8:25 a.m. Buses will be at school by 8:05 a.m. to allow students time to eat.

A motion was made by Sandy Gerving, seconded by Lisa Gerving, to approve the 2014-15 elementary and high school schedules. Motion unanimously carried.

5. UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

- 5-A Preschool 2014-15 Update – Mr. Barry indicated that we will need to hire a qualified teacher by July 18th for Preschool. We will be able to accept between 15 to 20 children giving preference to the older children should there be too many requests. Mr. Barry also reported that he has applied to DPI for approval, and any necessary equipment or supplies will be ordered. The fee will begin at $2.00 per hour. We will be able to accommodate special needs students, if needed, and the students can participate in the hot lunch program. To accommodate the new Preschool classroom, Mr. Barry presented the following suggestions:

Move the Help Desk to the east wing storage room

Have the Ag. Education class build a 20' x 24' storage shed
Move the Preschool Classroom to Grade 3
Move Grade 3 to Grade 6 Classroom
Move Grade 6 Classroom to the Help Desk Classroom

Lindell suggested putting the storage shed next to the school building by the Boy's Locker Room.

A motion was made by Lisa Gerving, seconded by Matt Kuhn, to hire a teacher for the Preschool, charge $2.00 per hour per student, and build a storage shed for storage.

After discussion, Lisa Gerving revised her motion, seconded by Matt Kuhn, to read as follows: To hire a teacher for the Preschool, charge $2.00 per hour per student, build a storage shed for storage and make any remodeling changes needed to the building to house the Preschool. Motion unanimously carried.

5-B Summer School Status: Discussed in Elementary Principal's Report

5-C Summer Project Updates: Mr. Barry presented updates on the following projects:

- The water fountains were ordered
- The gymnasium water fountain will be removed and the area covered
- The locker stalls have arrived
- New toilets are in the process of being ordered
- Concrete on the tennis court is okay for a basketball court

6. NEW BUSINESS:

6-A & 6-B Staffing for 2014-15 and Budget and Finance Committee Update:

Lisa Gerving made a motion, seconded by Sandy Gerving, to approve hiring Emily Brunskill as the new kindergarten teacher. Motion unanimously carried.

Shawn Dziuk made a motion, seconded by Dana Gerving, to hire Pete Remboldt as the Athletic Director. Motion unanimously carried.

Dana Gerving made a motion, seconded by Matt Kuhn to accept the resignation of Mike Koller from the summer custodial position. Motion unanimously carried.

A motion was made by Sandy Gerving, seconded by Lisa Gerving, to accept the Budget Committee's recommendation to offer Don Hagen a 3% increase in salary, plus $1,000, and a fringe equivalent to the cost of a single health insurance policy; to raise the Elem.

Principal, Naomi O'Donnell's salary, to $50,000; to raise the High School Principal, Pete Remboldt's salary, to $61,000; and to give John Barry, Superintendent, a 2-year contract with a salary of $78,250 the first year and a minimum of a 3% increase for the second year of the contract.

6-C Adequate Yearly Progress - AYP Status 2013-14: We did not reach AYP for the current school year which then mandates that 10% of our Title funds must be spent on professional development.

6-D Summer Activities Program: The summer activities program was discussed. Mr. Barry suggested the following guidelines:

- For K-6 students, 3 hours per day, 3 days per week, from Noon to 3 p.m.
- 15 student minimum
- Charge $25-$30 per month
- Run Tuesday thru Thursday
- Wednesdays, students will be going swimming
- Pay a current aide to run the program and pay minimum wage for student help

A motion was made by Sandy Gerving, seconded by Matt Kuhn, to approve the Summer Blast Program per Mr. Barry's guidelines including hiring someone to run the program. Motion unanimously carried.

6-E Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) Status: We met the requirements for 2012-13 IDEA status.

6-F Hire Election Workers: A motion was made by Shawn Dziuk, seconded by Dana Gerving, to hire election workers. Motion unanimously carried.
